

PRESS RELEASE

Under the Covers benefit gig

The Banbury community has pulled together to stage an evening of entertainment on Friday 25 August in aid of the Horton hospital legal fighting fund.

All participants are donating their services so it will be a clear profit event. DJ Chris Baxter will be spinning his 'wheels of steel' at the GF Club, which is providing the venue free of charge. A special mention must go to Kevin Preedy, who had previously won a raffle prize donated by Kallkwik, and cashed it in to have the event tickets printed FOC.

Described as Oxfordshire's premier party band, Under the Covers' repertoire ranges from the 80s to the present day. Fronted by Jemma Hibberd, the five piece band has a loyal fan base.

'We are absolutely delighted that such a talented outfit is so committed to raising funds to save services at our hospital' said Keep the Horton General chairman, Keith Strangwood. 'It will be a brilliant evening with scores of fantastic raffle prizes on offer. With a 7pm start we will be rocking for a brilliant cause until midnight. Tickets are selling fast so make sure you get yours without delay on 07393 838345 (Kevin Preedy)/ 07786 037542 (Ken Hopkins)'.
